Light Dreams is a musical band, one of the three best representatives of the Ukrainian electronic chillout scene.

At the moment it is a Duo of two musicians Alexander Sky and Olga Kubyk.

The date of creation of the band can be considered 2013. At that time, part of the Light Dreams was consisting of three people and the main music bias was in the direction of such styles as Chillout, Ethno and electronica.

"Faces of Nature" was the first EP album of the band, and the songs "Rain" and "Wind" from this album, have long been in the TOP 40 of some European and American radio stations in the categories Ambient/Chillout.

Since the creation of the band, the musicians have toured extensively, participating in major Ukrainian and foreign festivals, from time to time creating collaborations with other musicians and bands.

In 2016, Light Dreams becomes a Duo, changing its sound towards of light dancing chillout / downtempo style, successfully manifesting itself at such major festivals as Koktebel Jazz Festival, Atlas Weekend, Gogol Fest and Vibronica Music Festival.

Light Dreams music is used as soundtracks for commercials and in the fashion industry.

In 2018, the band released a mini album "Time for Spring", which receives positive feedback from listeners and music critics.

Now Light Dreams continue to tour tightly, working on the creation of a new high-quality sound.
